

Kenn Borek Air Ltd.

KENN BOREK MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Introduction

Kenn Borek founded Kenn Borek Air with one twin otter in 1970. Now owning and operating approximately 50 aircraft, Kenn Borek Air provides services worldwide on all seven continents. Kenn Borek Air is also recognized worldwide for its spectacular rescue missions, including in the Antarctic.

Kenn Borek was not only a successful businessman, he was also a community leader honoured for his significant contribution to his community with the Queen's Golden Jubilee medal in 2002.

In recognition of his achievements, the Borek Group of Companies established an annual scholarship in the amount of $4,000 in the name of the late Kenn Borek.

The Kenn Borek Memorial Scholarship was instituted to assist Western and Northern Canadian students pursuing careers in aviation. The scholarship is to be used by the successful applicant towards payment of their aviation education.

Eligibility

In order to be considered for the scholarship, applicants must demonstrate that they meet the following eligibility criteria by providing copies of documentation as described:

1. Canadian citizenship
 - Provide proof of citizenship. eg. copies of birth certificates or citizenship papers.
2. Current residency in Western or Northern Canada, specifically residency in either the Yukon, Northwest Territories, Nunavut, British Columbia or Alberta
 - Provide proof of residency, eg. copies of health care cards, driver's licenses, etc.
3. Age 18 to 30 years
 - Provide proof of age, such as copies of birth certificates.
4. In pursuit of pilot or aircraft maintenance training in an aviation program at an accredited post-secondary institution
 - Provide proof of acceptance in the aviation program at the accredited post-secondary institution.
5. A high school diploma or equivalent
 - Provide copies of high school diplomas or proof of equivalent training.
6. Reasonable academic achievement in aviation program
 - Provide copies of academic transcripts from the aviation program.

7. Three letters of recommendation
 - Submit three reference letters.
8. Volunteer and/or community service
 - Submit a short summary of community and/or volunteer service.
9. Proven self-starter
 - Submit a short summary of activities demonstrating that you are a motivated self-starter.
10. Statement of Interest
 - Submit a one page composition expressing why you think you should be the chosen recipient of the Scholarship.

Administration

The Kenn Borek Memorial Scholarship will be administered by the Northern Air Transport Association.

Applications must be received by the Northern Air Transport Association before March 31, 2017 at 5:00 P.M. (MST) by mail or email.

Mail: Northern Air Transport Association
 c/o Christiana Hadzoglou
 Parlee McLaws LLP
 3300 TD Canada Trust Tower
 421 – 7th Avenue SW
 Calgary, AB T2P 4K9

Email: bmcdonald@parlee.com

Scholarship monies shall be paid directly by the Kenn Borek Group of Companies to the accredited post-secondary institution offering the aviation program in which the successful applicant is enrolled, to be applied towards tuition payable, with the remaining scholarship balance, if any, to be paid to the successful applicant.

Communication Plan

Communication of scholarship information and application procedures shall be undertaken by the Northern Air Transport Association, including as follows:

1. Website postings on the Northern Air Transport Association website;
2. Brochures to be designed and distributed to accredited institutions offering pilot and aircraft maintenance training programs.

Selection of Successful Applicant

An award selection committee, comprised of appointed representatives of the Northern Air Transport Association, will screen and recommend potential successful recipients to Mrs. Rosella Borek, who will select the successful candidate. All award decisions are at the discretion of Mrs. Rosella Borek, and shall be final.

ONLY the successful recipient may be notified.